RIEDU Rewind: A Glimpse of Our Magical JourneyYEP 2025By Dr Shruti Shankar Gaur*

I had always been fascinated by stories that took me to unknown, faraway lands. Stories with characters very different from me and my surroundings. You can say it was a good escape, and as a child, I loved my escapes into these wonderlands and neverlands. It was common to find me looking for hidden alleys and secret doors while I visited our family home. I would collect all the trash (like lanterns that were no longer in use), and when anyone asked, I would say I am taking them with me as I need them for my story.

THE COMFORT CONNECTION

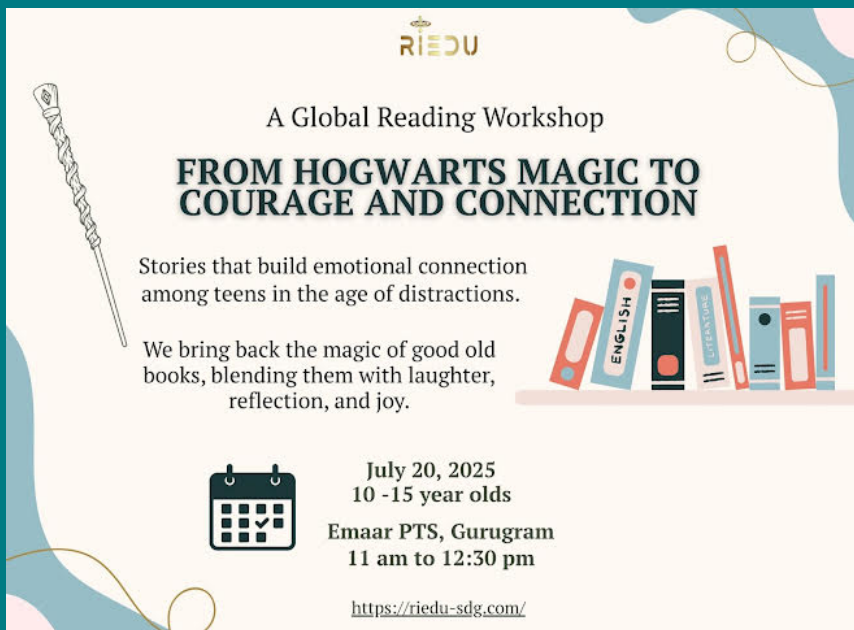

By Bhavya Paruthi

In our recent Reading Club session, we explored the theme: "The comfort connection: why hugs matter more than WiFi." This session was incredibly close to my heart, not just because of the theme, but because it marked two firsts: our very first time using storytelling powered by the science of human behaviour, and the first time I had the opportunity to lead a session myself.
